

Genesis 22

“Take your son...”

Features of this chapter:

1. Written in a very _____ style: repetitious and grave.
2. Shows that the climax of Abraham’s life is a _____.
3. Very _____ of the sacrifice of Jesus.

Things to learn from this passage:

1. God’s tests on his children happen after he gives his greatest _____.
2. God _____ and God _____.
3. God is most honored by us when we submit to his _____.
4. We are greatly rewarded by _____ to God’s word.

Chapter outline:

- I. The _____ of Abraham (22:1-2)
 - A. Take _____
 - B. Go to _____
 - C. Offer Isaac as a _____
- II. The _____ of Abraham (22:3-11)
 - A. _____
 - B. _____
 - C. _____
- III. The _____ for Abraham (22:12-19)
 - A. God judges Abraham to be a true _____.
 - B. Abraham sees the _____ of God.
 - C. God commits his _____ to Abraham.

An Epilogue:

Genesis 22:20-23 is written to give context to two things:

1. The timeframe of _____.
2. The future _____ of Isaac.