

“Do not interpretations belong to God?”

Outline, another chiastic chapter:

I. Pharaoh's officers are _____. (40:1-8)

A. Two officers commit an offense:

1. Cupbearer

2. Baker

B. Joseph is back under the rule of _____.

C. Pharaoh's officers have troubling _____.

1. Remember that things that come in pairs mean _____ or _____.

II. The dream of the cupbearer and its interpretation. (40:9-13)

A. The cupbearer will be re-_____.

III. Joseph declares that he is _____. (40:14-15)

A. Who is the true _____?

B. The center of this chapter is the _____ against Joseph.

IV. The dream of the baker and its interpretation. (40:16-19)

A. The baker will be _____.

V. Pharaoh's officers are _____. (40:20-23)

A. Who holds the power of life and death?

B. Who is the true judge?

C. Is everything happening on Pharaoh's timeline? Or, God's?